

Urgent Care Association of America

Rick Greene

Rick Greene is Executive Vice President of Dobbs Equity Partners LLC, based in Memphis, Tennessee. Dobbs is the family office of John H. Dobbs, Jr. and actively seeks, develops and makes private equity investments in a number of fields, including healthcare and health-related industries. The Dobbs family has owned Health Maintenance Organizations (“HMO”) and currently owns several healthcare businesses, including psychiatric hospitals and dental clinics. The Dobbs family currently owns or has owned businesses in the fields of automobile dealerships, auto parts distributors, restaurants and catering, and beer distributors, among other things.

Prior to joining Dobbs, Greene was an executive with a NYSE-traded company operating in the agricultural biotechnology industry prior to the Company’s sale in 2007. Mr. Greene served in a variety of roles including Chief Financial Officer, Senior Vice President- International Business and Senior Vice President-Corporate Development. As head of Corporate Development, Mr. Greene oversaw all business development and strategic planning activities of the company including mergers and acquisitions, licensing, and business expansion. Mr. Greene has been involved in dozens of business combinations, acquisitions, divestitures, joint-ventures and similar transactions.

Mr. Greene is a Summa cum laude graduate of Christian Brothers University and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. He is a Certified Public Accountant.

Contact Information:

Rick Greene
Executive Vice President
Dobbs Equity Partners LLC
Memphis, Tennessee
Rdgreene@dobbsequity.com