

Urgent Care Association of America

C. Carleton King
President
Aetna's Health Care Management
SW and SE Regions

Carl is responsible for managing billions of dollars of medical costs for Aetna's 5.2 million insured and self-insured members in eleven southern states. He is directly responsible for provider contracting, provider relations, utilization management and quality management activities. Carl is also President of Aetna's HMO entities in five states, including Texas.

Carl held a number of senior management positions with Aetna since 1999. He has multi-state P&L experience and helped lead Aetna's turnaround in Texas. Prior to joining Aetna he was Executive Director for Prudential's North Texas operation.

Mr King was also CEO of Health Alliance Medical Plans, an innovative provider-sponsored plan based in Urbana, Illinois for five years.

Carl started out in the hospital business running hospitals for Hospital Corporation of America and Hospital Affiliated International. He also has multi-specialty group management experience.

Carl earned his B.B.A. degree in Health Administration from Georgia State in 1978 and his M.H.A. degree in Health Administration from Duke University in 1980.

Carl is listed in the Who's Who in Managed Care publication. He has served on numerous boards and committees in the health care industry.
