

Urgent Care Association of America

Steve Sellars, MBA

Steve Sellars is the CEO of Convenient Care, L.L.C. and Premier Health. Convenient Care owns seven Lake After Hours Urgent Care Clinics and Total Occupational Medicine. Premier Health owns urgent care clinics through joint-venture relationships and provides management and consulting services and support for physician practices and other healthcare organizations.

Steve has more than sixteen years of healthcare management experience, including eight years in the managed care industry and five years with the largest health system in the Gulf South.

Steve's background includes significant executive management and consulting experience with physician groups, hospitals, and other healthcare professionals. In addition, Steve has extensive experience in provider network development, contract negotiations, strategic planning and development, and practice management. Steve is a faculty member at Our Lady of the Lake College, a board member for a multi-site rehabilitation company, serves on the Urgent Care Association of America Accreditation Committee, and is a member of the Medical Group Management Association.

Steve received his bachelor's degree and master of business administration from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
