

Urgent Care Association of America

Alfredo Tirado-Gonzalez, MD

Alfredo Tirado has been the Ultrasound Program Director for the Emergency Medicine Residency Program for Florida Hospital-East Orlando, since 2007. Originally from Puerto Rico, he finished his Medical School and Residency Program in Emergency Medicine with the University of Puerto Rico and served as Academic Chief Resident in his senior year. Dr. Tirado then went to Providence, Rhode Island and finished an Emergency Ultrasound Fellowship with the University Emergency Foundation associated with The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University.

After finishing he started working with Florida Emergency Physicians, and has helped with the implementation of an Ultrasound Curriculum for Residents and Faculty, as well as a Credentialing Process. He has presented in the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine, and the Fourth World Congress on Ultrasound in Emergency Medicine and Critical Care, with research on Bedside Ultrasound for the Non-Invasive Estimation of Central Venous Pressure in Critically Ill Adult ED Patients.

Dr. Tirado is an active member of the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine (SAEM) and the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP). He is actively working in the SAEM/ACEP-Ultrasound Interest Group, for development of a vertical ultrasound course in medical students, and standardization of ultrasound reports for ACEP. He has been appointed volunteer faculty for the University of Central Florida (UCF), College of Medicine, where he is working with an Ultrasound initiative for the Anatomy labs. At present he finished an Academic Fellowship with ACEP and is finishing the Emergency Medicine Basic Research Skills (EMBRs) Course for ACEP. He is also an active member American Institute of Ultrasound in Medicine (AIUM).
