

Urgent Care Association of America

Peter Lamelas, MD, MBA, FAAEP

Dr. Peter Lamelas, is the owner, CEO & Medical Director of “MD Now Medical Centers,” which is the largest provider of Urgent Care and Occupational Medicine services in Palm Beach County, Florida. He is Residency trained in Internal Medicine and Board Certified in Emergency Medicine having more than 17 years experience as Emergency Department Medical Director of Columbia Hospital, Florida. A long standing member of the American College of Emergency Physicians, a member of UCAOA from its initiation and on the editorial board of the Journal of Urgent Care Medicine.

Dr. Lamelas has been on staff in the ER’s of Bethesda Memorial Hospital, Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, Wellington Regional Medical Center, Columbia Hospital and St. Mary’s Hospital, also serving as a Fire Rescue EMS Medical Director for over 15 years.

In 2001, he received a gubernatorial appointment from Florida Governor Jeb Bush to serve as one of twelve doctors on the State of Florida Board of Medicine. He served as Chairman of the Rules and Legislative Committee, Chairman of the Quality Assurance Committee and was elected Vice Chair of the Board of Medicine.

In 1993 he earned his Master’s Degree in Business Administration from Nova Southeastern University, and in February 2005 realized a long term dream of building, owning and operating his own “state of the art” urgent care center.

Dr Lamelas is currently a member of the UCAOA Board of Directors as well as the Chairman of the UCAOA Legislative Committee. He is on the Certified Urgent Care Center, or “CUC Certification Committee,” having been instrumental in its development and drafting of its criteria.

Since founding MD Now Urgent Care Medical Centers, Dr Lamelas has worked to make it the market leader expanding them to six locations throughout Palm Beach County, with others on the way. Together with his wife Stephanie Lamelas, MBA, he has made “MD Now” a highly recognized name and a busy, highly respected provider of Urgent Care & Occupational Medicine, in South, Florida.

Contact Information:

Peter Lamelas, MD, MBA, FAAEP
plamelas@ucaoa.org